Have a gastronomical feast on New Year's Eve with a five-course set menu which is also available for reservations separately at RM300 nett per person, inclusive one glass of sparkling wine. After dinner, adjourn to Asean Terrace Lounge to bring out the singer in you with a karaoke session followed by a Countdown Party to usher in the New Year.

With the rest of the island resorts on the East Coast of Peninsular Malaysia being closed to tourists from November to February each year, The Taaras Beach & Spa Resort has remained in operation throughout the year since 2019 as guests can opt to travel seamlessly via a direct flight. Its private beach is protected by two bays, also making it a unique destination on the island to continue its operation at the end of the year. Top activities to enjoy during your stay include snorkeling, ATV, clear kayak, SUP board, surfing, Little Chef for the kids, beach volleyball and a gym to take in the amazing view of the ocean while you workout.

When you stay with us, we ensure that you have a luxurious escape with endless memories to take home. However, we understand how an unpleasant weather can disrupt a well-planned staycation. Hence, should it rain continuously for six hours between 7am to 7pm during your stay, we will extend to you a complimentary one-night extension stay when you book via our website and select the 'Fine Weather Guarantee' inclusion at RM200 nett prior to checkout of your booking.

The direct flight will certainly provide a hassle-free travelling experience by greatly reducing the travelling time to Redang Island from an average of four hours to approximately one-hour flight duration. Moreover, guests will get to enjoy privileges including access and refreshment at Naza SkyLounge located at level 1 of Subang Airport, 15kg check-in luggage and 7kg hand luggage allowance per person, availability of excess luggage storage, express boarding and refreshment on board.
